PITCPED BATTLE IN GIZARD COVE

THE HEADRICK FAMILY AND SHERIFF'S POSSE EX- CHANGE SHOTS.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 28.—A dispatch from Jasper, Tenn., to the American, says a pitched battle occurred in a cove known as the Gizard, between a family by the name of Headrick and a sheriff's posse. The shooting occurred at the house of a woman named Plummer. When the smoke had cleared it was found that one of the Headrick's was dead and Mrs. Plummer badly wounded. The Headricks went to the house after Sam Plummer who was accused of assaulting the wife of one of the Headricks.

MONTEAGLE.

Special to the News.
The public school here has been suspended until after Christmas. Miss Elizabeth Kennedy and brother, John, are visiting in Dixon. Miss Mary Hesse, who has been teaching here this fall, left Monday for her home in Decatur. Some of our young people will give a play Thursday night for the benefit of the school piano. Wilburn Nelson, who is attending school in Nashville, visited his mother here Sunday. Miss Dagmar Hegge, of Beersheba Springs, is visiting Miss Julia Holcombe. Mr. and Mrs. John Ruel, of Seawane, were on our streets Sunday. Dr. D. H. Bryant is very sick. Mrs. Wm. Gilliam and children moved to the valley Wednesday. Miss Hallie Weaver, of Tracy city, was on our streets Tuesday. Quite a number of our young people were delightfully entertained at the home of Miss Leota Gilliam Thursday night. Eaglet.

Croup.

A reliable medicine and one that should always be kept in the home for immediate use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will prevent the attack if given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears. For sale by Jno. W. Simpson, Jasper, Tenn.

Your subscription is ever welcome. Only 50c for 52 issues.

KELLY'S FERRY.

Special to the News.

J. C. Foster and Mr. Kelly, of Jasper, went to Chattanooga Monday. Miss Pearl McNabb was the guest of Miss May Newsom Monday. We have new mail carriers at Kelly's Ferry and have a daily mail—T. J. Sexton and Silas Powers are the champion carriers now. Mr. and Mrs. Felt Hartman were the guests of Mrs. Wm. Hartman Sunday. Misses Ethel McNabb and Mamie White called at the postoffice Sunday eve on business. Business is flying now. Every man in this vicinity is working on the railroad. Mrs. Isiah Newsome and Mrs. R. F. Richey made a business trip to Chattanooga Monday. J. M. McNabb was in our vicinity Sunday. If you want to see Chas. Hartman smile ask him who is the prettiest girl he saw Sunday. Jol Hartman made a business trip to Bridgeport Saturday with some stray cattle. Ask Tom McNabb if he likes to get the mail. Arch McNabb is always glad to get the News on Friday. I want to say a few words to Little Union Girl. Mr. Isiah Newsome wants her to write again for he does enjoy reading her letters. Hold for your rights, Little Union Girl. I want you to sign your name the next time as I think you are my cousin.

COALMONT.

Special to the News.

Mrs. C. R. Daniel was in Tracy Monday. Jesse Bell, Rob Hall and Sam Henson were here Sunday. Mrs. Lovelace and charming daughter, Miss Pearl, spent Saturday and Sunday in Tracy. Bro. Jones closed his meeting Sunday night. We were all sorry to see him and Mrs. Jones leave, but we hope they will come again soon. Misses Kate Creighton and Rosa Dykes were out riding Wednesday eve. Misses Lucy Stepp and Lora Goodman are here as the guests of Miss Pearl Lovelace. Revs. Tate and Delk arrived here this evening where they expect to hold a protracted meeting. Misses Nellie Sidall and Rosa Dykes and Ed Stewart were out walking Sunday eve. Sidney Crisp, of Tracy, is here. Sam Dishroon and John Duncan were in the colony Sunday. Leonard Brown and Wade Stepp were here Monday. Mrs. Smith and children returned home Friday. Wonder what makes Nell Sidall look so sad. I guess she wants a letter. Ask Horace Heard if he knows how to spell "sack" or "no not tonight". Joe.

SULPHUR SPRING.

Special to the News.

News is not plentiful this week. Gathering corn is the order of the day. Misses Dora Shelton and Emma Bryson went to Whitwell Saturday shopping. Mrs. J. H. Grant and Mrs. Joe Davis called at B. B. Alder's store Saturday. Miss Emma Bryson visited Misses Lizzie and Dorcas Richards Sunday. Miss Emma Smith was all smiles Sunday. Bryson Richards hung his hat on G. D. Smith's gate post Sunday. Luther Grant made his regular call Sunday at G. W. Harris'. Miss Nellie was all smiles. Miss Emma Bryson was all smiles Sunday. Brown Condra hangs his hat on J. F. Richard's gate post now. J. H. Grant went to Whitwell Saturday.

Albert Condra visited the school at Sulphur Springs Friday. What was the attraction, Albert? R. C. Richards made a business trip to Sequachee Saturday. Nellie Harris went to Whitwell Thursday. If you want to see Miss Ada Phelps smile ask her about Mr. Henry, of Dunlap.

Ask Willie Alder how he likes for his cattle to be fed on J. F. Richard's farm. John Hamilton called at B. B. Alder's store Friday.

G. W. Bryson went to Whitwell Saturday. Mrs. Dave Ketner, of Looney's Creek, visited Mrs. J. H. Grant last week.

R. E. Davis and son, Joe, made a business trip to the Tennessee river last week. E. L. Carlton made his regular trip to Whitwell Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. Davis, of Arkansas, is visiting relatives here this week. I wonder why Talmage Davis and May Grant were looking so sad about Sunday.

Misses Della and Stella Carlton were all smiles Sunday. Miss Dorcas Richards looked sad Sunday because she didn't see her best fellow. Sunshine.

"I Thank the Lord!"

cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark., "For the relief I got from Bucklin's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal and from which I had suffered for 5 years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at all druggists; 25c.

TATE'S CHAPEL.

Special to the News.

Miss Ada Green is somewhat indisposed this week. Mr. Thaxton, from Warren county, who is operating a saw mill near here, was in this vicinity Saturday.

Little Joe and Ervin Pressnell, who were badly burned some time ago, have about recovered. S. C. Green and Mr. Floyd have returned from Alabama, where they have been visiting.

A. L. Panter went to Whitwell Thursday. We are not having any preaching at Tate's Chapel as we were left without a pastor, but we hope the presiding Elder will send some one yet.

We have had some cold, frosty nights and therefore we are living on pork and beans. Miss Lora E. Smith entertained her third and fifth grade pupils at the home of Mrs. W. F. Crenshaw, with an old-fashioned candy stew. The evening was pleasantly spent playing outdoor games and pulling candy. Those present were:

Misses—Timmie Greene, Myrtle Crenshaw, Amanda Long, Creta Slaton, Grace Panter, Minnie Slaton, Lou Deane Floyd, Lena Harrison.

Messrs.—Tommy Harrison, Jno. E. Floyd, Roy Crenshaw, Philip Floyd, Robert Harrison, Jno. T. Floyd, Will Harrison, Will Floyd. E. E.

NOTICE

I will be at Jasper on Monday of each week. All parties desiring dental work will please call at the Hughes House. N. B. MOORE, DENTIST.

ROOPE, TENN.

Special to the News.

Warm weather is the order of the day. Misses Ellen Bailey and Annie Thacker and Mattie Houts visited Miss Lizzie Smith Sunday afternoon. There was meeting at Brumley school house Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night. Large crowds attended. Ed Houts has gotten above all the young ladies except one certain girl. Miss Ellen Bailey was all smiles Sunday. I guess she saw her best fellow. Wes Hicks had a smile on his face Sunday as long as the railroad from the drum to the mines. A certain girl said she thought Sile McNabb was very pretty until one Sunday. The Divine Healers preached and she saw him crying and now she says he is very ugly.

Misses Edith Cyphers and Lizzie Myers were on the mountain Saturday and Sunday visiting friends and relatives. Miss Mattie Bailey was at meeting Sunday night and was with her best fellow. Miss Mattie Houts looked pleased Sunday. Miss Ellen Bailey is going to Whitwell to spend Xmas.

Mynett Cordell, of Chattanooga, was on the mountain Sunday. Miss Rebecca Davis was with her best fellow Sunday night. Jake Houts, of Republic, Ala., will spend Xmas here. Frank Degnan has bought a phonograph and has a lot of pretty pieces. Miss Janie Degnan looked sad Sunday night because she didn't see her fellow. Jack Smith, of Whitwell, was on the mountain Sunday. Crook & Crank.
